It's an Easter

EGG-STRAVAGANZA!

Jokes this bad were NOT in my contract.

It's not what I 'egg-pected' either... sorry

It's Easter and that means chocolate eggs and hot-cross buns and probably other stuff - but mostly chocolate, chocolate, CHOCOLATE!

We reckon it's an egg-cellent idea to balance that sugar intake with some egg-citing outdoor activities, and if your mates have chosen Easter to land on your doorstep they'll be egg-static that you found something more egg-zilarating to do than just egg-sploring a new shopping centre! You'll be egg-tranced by a spa experiences, egg-shailing in delight after a parachute jump or just egg-shausted after a day 'cracking' up on a fun Musandam adventure...

Oh OK fine, we're taking this a bit far now. Do it different this Easter weekend. Balance the chocolate with something...
