WET & WILD!

You see those old people sunning themselves on the beach, looking more like shammy leathers than humans? That's because they hit the land instead of water - which is clearly not the way nature intended! We say make like a fishie, not a prune. The ocean's where it's at this week... but it's not gonna last. Before it gets hotter than your bathroom shower, dive in for some high-speed, wet, and seriously wild thrills!

MY EMPLOYEES LOVE ME... WHY?

It's not just because I'm a sexy boss. So debonaire and cultured, that adoration needs washing from between my toes every single night... I also have a naughty, rather dirty, little secret! bluebanana.com's brilliant corporate team - they're clever, and that makes ME look clever, and that keeps the love flowing into my life... and my heaving, fat wallet!
