A feeling you'll never forget. Fly Emirates. Keep discovering.

Some things last longer than a moment. The day you realised your dream. The week you felt the butterflies from your first escape. The year you found your favourite table by the window. At Emirates, those moments start the second you step onboard.

Some things last longer than our childhood. The adventure in discovering new places and viewing every stranger as a friend you haven't met. At Emirates, we cherish those moments. Which is why we create even more, the second you step onboard.

A feeling you'll never forget. Fly Emirates. Keep discovering.
